VOLUBLE

Deputy Lord Mayor Nick Shehadie acted in the senior capacity whilst Lord Mayor Griffin was in Russia.

For ten days Nick had a mouth abscess and his many speeches were more than he would make usually in a year.

"That is as an alderman only," said his pal Sir Emmet McDermott - having a close memory of many other times and places.

* * *

SAFARI

On Sydney Cup day, Maurie Anderson, in charge of the winner Apollo Eleven, was talking to a little band of friends including Jack Mann, Wally Hutchinson and Bill Hannan.

Jack posed the familiar racing question: "What are you frightened of?"

Quickly retorted Maurie: "Lions and tigers!"

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

May 4th was a happy day for Club member Bob Lindsay. It was his 79th birthday and a group of close friends including Harry Graham, Alf Moss, Don Clark, Mike Wilmot, Bill Hamilton, Max Parker, all members and regular diners at the Club, entertained Bob at a luncheon party.

Harry, who organised the party, expressed the wish that they may celebrate this occasion for many years to come.

* * *

TO THE HILT

We do not know the date yet, but we can guarantee for sure a ripper of a party when Count Rapier wins.

And those present will include the owners, a great band of sports, standing (at the start) from left to right: Kev Barrington, Ted Barr, Tom Ginty, Walter Burfitt, Frank Bowe and Guy Williams.

KEPT HIS COOL

Football was the topic and Frank Browne, one time pugilist, told Leo O'Sullivan of his initial RU grade game in the firsts. It was on Anzac Day, 1933, for Easts against Manly at Manly Oval - and Frank survived without even a caution. The reason being the steady influence of Rod O'Loan.

BOYS OF THE OLD BRIGADE

There is an old saying "They drank from the wells that their predecessors dug."

Very true, and in Tattersall's, assurance is given to veterans of the Club that they shall be recognised.

Effective for years and formally determined recently by members' vote, each member who has had 40 years continuous years membership has conferred on him the title of Senior Member.

There is now a total of 72 Senior Members, a particularly laudable achievement in a Club total of 4,600.

Last month Chairman Geoff Eastment officiated at a congenial ceremony and conferred the honour of Senior Member on the following ten members: Gordon Booth, honorary life member; Sam Brown, who drove down from the Gold Coast to have the medallion attached at his lapel; Simon Green - brother of Israel who is also a Senior Member; Ernie Heine - just out of hospital for the occasion; Sid Lorking - ex Sydney Municipal Council and hotelier; Vic Richards - his brother Tom is already a Senior Member; Reg Wilson - publisher.

In absentia - Reg Moloney was ill; Pat Hernon was unable to attend but wrote "It has been an honour and privilege to have belonged to such a fine club for so many years, and I think that the Committee has treated us old-timers very generously."

Pleasing to see was the personal welcome extended by seven of our only nine life members. Gordon Booth was there in his dual capacity - both life and senior member.

Here are those stalwarts: Stan Chatterton, ex-Chairman and now Senior Member; Alf Collins ex-Committee and Senior Member; Claude Moore, Committeeman; Barney Fay, Treasurer; Bill Sellen, ex-Committee.

Apologies received from Donald Wilson, ex-Committee and Tom Manning ex-Secretary.

It was really a get together of the "Boys of the Old Brigade" as of the 24 present in the room they aggregated just on 900 years membership. Happy and lengthy is membership in Tattersall's.

Each of the recipients of the lapel badges betokening the honour had a word of thanks as Chairman Geoff Eastment gave his individual eulogistic citations.

Gordon Booth: "A moving moment. At my age I have fading memories and recollections, but what I owe to my Tattersall's associations will never be dimmed." Sam Brown: "My ears are not the best but my breathing is good, once that stops..." Simon Green: "The previous time I was in the Club was last July when I was taken out by ambulance - this is my first visit in convalescence." Interposed Les Tidmarsh, "Keep getting better as you will, Simon, you'll go out on the arm of a little topsy." Ernie Heine: "I'm just out of hospital and I look back over the past 40 years recalling wonderful times in the Club. I hope to last a few years longer even if it is not another 40 years." Zade Lazarus: "You can't take out more than you put into a pint pot - I've never had better times elsewhere." Sid Lorking: "Very happy memories. I'm not as virile as of yore." Vic Richards: "When my wife saw Secretary Jim Thomson's letter conveying today's invitation and extolling the occasion she said. 'You must be also due for the old age pension.'" Reg Wilson-Reid: "A lot of Sydney has changed in the last 40 years. Just look about - Tattersall's has been rebuilt, the world is different, but the fellowship and friendliness of this Club has not, and never will change."

INTERSTATE

Gay blades of yesterday, Andy Maguire, Ted Lee and Sid Hungerford, were residents in the Club over the AJC Sydney Cup week.

Their combined ages well covered the two century mark.

And amongst their topics: Andy's prowess when he won the Australian boxing bantam title in 1917, Ted's winning at the professional running meet at Stawell, and Sid's Maribyrnong, sprinting successes.

Good scouts all, we will meet up with them again in Melbourne at Cup time.

* * *

DINING, WINING, DANCING

Treasurer Barney Fay and wife Eileen entertained Frank and Pearl Fay of Christchurch, NZ. You would probably say, "So what - Barney's relations of course."

No - no relation, but Frank is one of our members from across the Tasman.

SEER

Jack Barrett is ever ready with a story - always true. There would be few Double Bay identities better known than "Baron" Brown. The Baron was being interviewed by a woman doing a survey on TV programmes.

"What would you most like to see on TV," she coyly enquired.

Replied the Baron cynically, "Saturday's results on Friday night!"

COMING CHAMPIONS

Noel Simpson's stallion station, as he calls his Castle Hill stud property, has Thor Hanover and Trainer Hanover standing.

Noel was well pleased with the results of two classic events in Melbourne in April. Jotto (by Trainer Hanover) won the Youthful Stakes, and in the Oaks Final, Rowdy Girl and Talent View, both daughters of Thor Hanover, finished first and second.

CON JOB

Steph Lowe said "My son, David, has persuaded me, after ten years away from the divots, to play in Avondale's Father and Son competition. His instructions were to "walk round and play the short ones."

CHIPPER CEDRIC

We appreciated the many compliments from members, and their families too, flowing from the April issue of TCM which featured Cedric Emanuel's beautiful drawings.

We feel that a chipper chap is one who is lively, cheerful, brisk and busy, and in this category there must be Cedric.

He frequents our Club and enjoys a wide range of sporting activities. How he manages to fit them all in is beyond us, as apart from his overseas French commitment in Brittany this year, he is currently engaged in illustrations for 20 books.

OUR MAN IN LONDON, AGAIN.

Australia's High Commissioner John Armstrong was noted top of the diplomatic popularity poll in London on account of his warmth and earthiness, his cardigan jacket, emerald green, and his Australian humour.

* * *

MESSAGE NOT RECEIVED

Jim Hardy, sailing master of Alan Bond's Apollo II, failed to get the tip.

During Sydney Cup week the press unanimously tipped New Zealand candidate (and winner) Apollo Eleven (written often as Apollo II) but Jim missed out.

HOOF NOTES

After a quarter of a century of breeding young thoroughbreds, Tom Flynn decided to disperse his Oakleigh Stud. The sale realised $951,000 and Tom said, "never in my wildest dreams did I expect the dispersal to produce such a big turnover."

Tom's earliest association with horses was mainly with the variety that pull carts. He was first married to his wife Rose, borrowed $360 from his father and bought a milk run at Rockdale. He was then 23 and another 23 years later he started Oakleigh.

Now 72, Tom says: "Time either marches or gallops on."

$100,000 for a yearling racehorse might seem ludicrous, but it will happen next year.

Tom Smith says: "I have no doubts that I will be bidding a hundred grand for a yearling next year. The top price is already up to $71,000 and with inflation and the way prize money is rising there is so much money around to buy yearlings. Money just doesn't seem a barrier."

This year he attended four yearling sales, and bought 45 yearlings for a total of $612,000 at an average of $13,606.

At the Sydney Easter sales Tom spent $400,500 to buy 21 yearlings, and he was unable to fill his orders failing by five horses to satisfy his clients.

SIR LESLIE HERRON

Sir Leslie Herron, who died last month, was Chief Justice of NSW from 1962 until 1972, but had been a judge of the Supreme Court since 1941 - almost as long as any man ever was.

Born at Mosman in 1902, Leslie James Herron was educated at Sydney Grammar School and the University of Sydney. He graduated with honours in Law in 1925, and was called to the Bar at the early age of 23 in the same year.

He was not a profound lawyer. With juries, however, he was a splendid advocate. He spoke to them in a down-to-earth manner which they could understand. In the country, especially, he used the terms which meant far more to his hearers than the punctilious precision of opponents from whom, in consequence, he snatched innumerable verdicts.

Sir Leslie took silk in 1939, and was appointed to the Supreme Court Bench in February 1941, at the age of 38.

In his private life he followed a variety of activities. He had been a good, though not outstanding, footballer at school and later played for Western Suburbs. He was chairman of the NSW Rugby Union from 1933 to 1939, and president from 1943 to 1956, becoming a life member.

He was the first president of the Australian Rugby Union in 1948, and represented Australia three times on the International Rugby Board.

He played golf without particular distinction, but had been president of the Australian Golf Club from 1943.

He was president of the NSW Swimming Association for 15 years, becoming a life member, and at the time of his death was president of the Sydney Cricket Ground Trust.

To add variety he was also president of the NSW branch of the St. John Ambulance Association.

He had been a good rower at school and university.

To these activities he added innumerable charitable tasks; he was never deaf to a charitable appeal.

In 1962 he became Chief Justice and in 1966 he was knighted.

Presiding over the Full Court of the Supreme Court, he brought a ready commonsense and clarity of expression to the judgements delivered there.

Sir Leslie became Lieutenant-Governor of the State in 1972, and retired from the Bench the following month.

He was a kindly, friendly and approachable man, even when occupying the highest office. He was a judge whose aim was "to do right and justice to all manner of men without fear or favour."

Sir Leslie is survived by Lady Herron and a daughter, Mrs Susan Crawford, to whom we extend our sincere condolences. He will be missed by many.

PERCE OUTERIDGE

On last Anzac Day Percival Maxwell Outeridge, or Perce, as he liked to be known, marched alongside his mates of the Sixth Australian Infantry Battalion. He died suddenly two days later.

Once head copy boy on the Sun, he followed a variety of occupations until he established and owned a huge publishing business with offices throughout Australia and New Zealand.

We extend our sympathy to his sorrowing widow, Brigitte, his son Thomas and daughter Christine.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

SYD FISCHER

It is probably the ambition of most men to reach the top in their chosen field, but few make it.

Syd Fischer is one of those people who has managed to succeed in contrapositive worlds — business and sport.

The fact that he was recently elected captain of the Australian team challenging for the Admiral's Cup in August this year is a testament to his varied and formidable abilities.

In the business world he is chairman and managing director of several investment and development companies. In just over five years under Syd's guidance one firm has advanced its total assets from $10 million to $40 million.

He laid the foundations when he began his own building business at the age of 21 with $100 to his credit.

Briefly that is the business side of Syd Fischer - from a humble start he fashioned one of Australia's most successful investment and development companies.

The drive which took him to the top in the world of high finance has also taken him to the top in one of the most gruelling of competitive sports - ocean yacht racing.

One of Australia's leading yachtsmen, he was named Yachtsman of the Year in 1971, for his effort in winning the World One Ton Cup title. Syd's name was added to an honour roll which bears such names as Bill Northam, David McKay, John Cuneo, Jock Sturrock, Bob Miller and Carl Ryves.

Syd began sailing competitively only 12 years ago but has always been a top sportsman, playing first grade Rugby League for Manly and surfboat sweep with North Steyne and Bilgola surf clubs in his younger days.

His first boat was the 41-footer Penando. In 1962 he bought Malohi, which he sailed into fifth place in the 1963 and 1966 Sydney-Hobart races.

With his sights on the 1969 Admiral's Cup he commissioned top American naval architect, Olin Stephens, to design Ragamuffin — which was an instant success in ocean racing. This was the most successful Australian yacht in the 1969 and 1971 Admiral's Cup series.

In 1969 Ragamuffin won the Channel race and was second in the Fastest race, as well as being the second highest individual point scorer and Royal Offshore Racing Club point score champion in Britain that season although she competed in only three of nine races with the best four counting.

In 1971 Ragamuffin was top individual point scorer, and won the Fastest race.

Along with Apollo II and Ginko, Ragamuffin will make up Australia's team challenge for the Admiral's Cup in August this year - and according to Syd it is a first class team.

He regards yachting as both a sport and a way to relax. But you won't find him on the harbour mid-week. "I don't mix business with pleasure", he says, "but I probably have the same determination in yacht racing as I have in business. That is my nature."

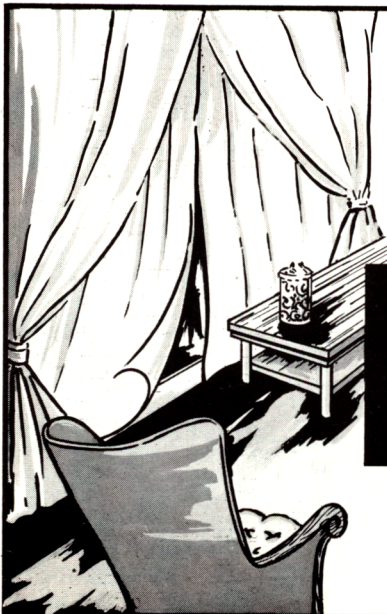

"There are different principles however. In business you have an obligation to your shareholders. In a yacht race you have one obligation to your crew and your boat, and that is to win.

"I enjoy it, although there are times when I wonder 'what am I doing in a place like this?' Those are the nights when it is bitterly cold and the rain is spitting in your face and there is a 40 to 70 knot wind blowing.

"But when it is all over everyone on board enjoys the knowledge that you have come through it together and that you have been sufficiently good seamen to have beaten the challenge.

"And above all, there is a certain comradeship between the fellows after they have all taken a bit of a hiding. That is what makes ocean racing."

Australians and Tattersall's Club members in particular wish the team the very best of luck with their Admiral's Cup challenge.

New member Bob Swinbourne, one of Sydney's best known golfing professionals, has been handing out regular lessons to Edwin Tindall. Master and pupil made a hot combination at Tattersall's day at Avondale and they carried off the fourball competition with a hefty total of 47 points.

In fact, so slick was Edwin's golf — he had 44 points on his own — that there was some doubt as to who was the teacher. "Best ride I've ever had," said Bob afterwards.

The pair won the fourball on a countback from Vic Stone and Tim Timmins.

Edwin, a hooker from the Drummoyne Rugby Union club, was one of a number of prominent identities who turned up for Tattersall's "Sportsman's Day."

It looked like a "Who's Who" of Australian sport among the 100 strong roll-up with celebrities like cricketers Alan Davidson and Gordon Rorke, tennis players Dinny Pails and Graham Lovett, footballers Arthur Summons, Alan Cardy, Dave Emanuel, Andy Town and Peter Dind, golf pros Dan Cullen and Bob Swinbourne.

Vic Stone and Edwin Tindall couldn't have had any putting problems however, and they shared their sweepstakes with their 44 points apiece. Bob Lovelace was next on 42 points, and he shared a 44 total with partner Ron Pritchard.

The scoring was quite spectacular, with John Grattan and Lionel Malone hitting the high spots on 45 points, and Phil Darby and David Richardson next on 44 points.

Among the best visitors performances was Bruce Cook's 40 points. Bruce is a former Manly cricketer and currently a member of the Sydney Cricket Ground Trust.

Our next day is at Pymble on 17th July, and as this is always a highlight on the golf calendar it would be wise to book early.

HANDBALL NOTES

By Sam Block

One perhaps could have been forgiven for thinking that the handball courts were the Coliseum in Rome during Nero's time, the arena at Munich Olympic Games, or Dante's Inferno.

Perhaps a conglomeration of all three combined when Tattersall's Handball Club staged a doubles knockout handicap tournament.

The thrilling melee of 24 herculean gladiators battling against each other for the Ramazan trophy, plus the many spectators, took one back into the past.

It was most gratifying to Arthur McCamley, the generous donor of the trophy who enjoyed all the spills and thrills, Norm Rogers, our energetic honorary secretary for his organisation and brilliant idea, and yours truly who had the unenviable job of handicapping the contestants.

The winners were Ken Glass and Bill Yewdall, who certainly deserved and earned the honour. Ken's aces and winning shots were the highlights of the evening, whilst Bill's steadiness kept their opponents on the defensive. The score was 43-39.

The runners up, Don Stait and Max Sernack, were unlucky in finding Ken and Bill in such devastating form. Max really showed glimpses of first grade play, and proved that he can rise to the occasion.

All then adjourned to the Function Room where the usual fabulous dinner had been arranged. What a grand way to end a grand night.

BOWLS

by Fred Empson

The Bowling Club's annual general meeting will be held in the Sportsman's Room at Tattersall's Club on Monday, 25th June at 2.30 p.m.

President Fuzz Porter hopes to have all clubs events finalised by that date so that trophies may be presented to the winners.

Missing from this year's meeting will be old stalwarts Cec Davis and Sir Leslie Herron, who have passed away. Cec was a member for many years, and Sir Leslie became an active member since his retirement. The bowling section will be poorer by their absence.

Fuzz is enlisting a team to represent Tattersall's at the Ellis Crew Memorial event at Pennant Hills, which will be held on the 9th and 11th June with the winners going back on Sunday 17th June.

In the Singles championship all the top bowlers remain in the third round. They are Harold Hill, Ron Relton, Bill West, Mick Simmons, John McKell, Stan Chatterton and Len Bourke, so with a line up like this some good games are still to come. Len is unlucky because he will have to forfeit as he is going overseas and will miss the important matches.

Good attendances and weather have been the order of the month, and enjoyable days were had by the Bowling Club.

19th April, Rose Bay: W. Schumacher, F. Hidden, B. Saw.

26th April, Double Bay: S. Green, J. Neville, L. Burke.

The first of the forthcoming seasonal activities is the annual dinner dance to be held at Tattersall's Club on 26th June next. This will be the same format as last year, with cocktails in the Club Room, followed by dinner in the Dining Room on the Fourth Floor. Make your reservations early to avoid disappointment. A most enjoyable time is assured.

The enthusiasm with which the bookings were snapped up at Thredbo and Falls Creek exceeded expectations, and we are all looking forward to two very enjoyable weeks.

Now for some further news on the Aspen trip next year. Following many requests the tour has been extended to include three weeks of skiing, with a week in each of three major American resorts, luxury twin hotel accommodation, lift tickets and most important of all — full time ski instruction.

Ski Club members will receive details in the near future. This tour is available to members and their friends, and anyone interested is asked to contact Jan Banner and she will give you more information.

Arrangements for the October long weekend will be along the same lines as last year. Again members will be advised of final details in the very near future, and you are urged to make early reservations.

Michael O'Dea and Ken Finn at Falls Creek

3rd May, City: J. Neville, P. Goldman, H. Hill.

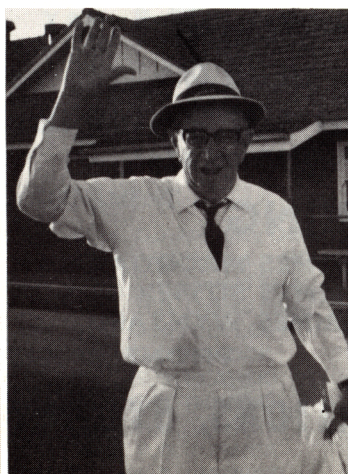

On 10th May we joined Double Bay in the charity game held for Rotary.

17th May, Rose Bay: R. Darch and P. Goldman.

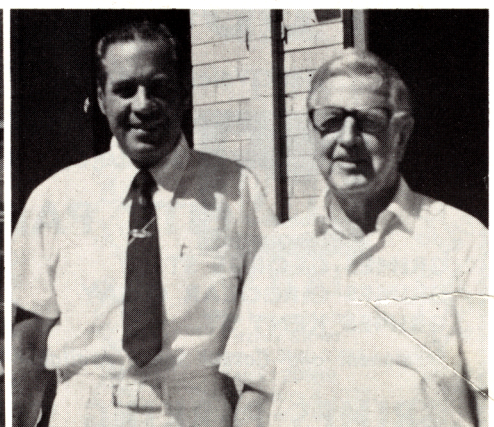

Final reminder: please don't forget the annual meeting on 25th June.

Turf Bowlers Newcastle. Geo "Whizzer" Pitt, (centre) of Canberra Club with team members.

City Tattersall's v Tattersall's — Bob Lindsay at Kensington

SWIMMING NOTES by Sam Block

Only seven events remaining to be decided in the 1972/73 point score tussle for the Native Son trophy provides many with chances of success.

Holidays, trips abroad and sickness, causing competitors to miss several events, make all the difference between the winner or an "also ran".

Cases in point: Gordon McGrath whose firm has moved out of town, is now well back; Russell Debney whose holiday in New Zealand cost him the leadership but is making a grand effort to recover same; Roger Farrell, who heads the list at time of writing, leaves for the Old Dart in the next few weeks.

The positions at the moment are Roger Farrell and Philip Moses equal on 141 points, leading Jim Comans by four points with Russell Debney half a point away, followed by Mike Frawley, Norm Rogers, David Dind, John Ward and Nick Heath all close up.

Last month we tipped that David Castle could win the April/May point score, which he did in fine style. His was a popular win as his unassuming nature and improvement in his starting and swimming have made him Al with boys in the pool.

Col Bowes bobbed up out of the blue for his nearest approach to a point score win this season by touching off John McClean for second place with Philip Moses close up third.

Col is coming up the ladder at a great rate but we doubt if his Apollo II finishing burst will make the prize list, the post being too close.

The 40 years brace relay provided a lot of fun and resulted in a dead heat between Col Bowes and D. Castle, and Bill Butchart and Max Sernack. The second final was narrowly won by Syd Kay and Nick Heath from Warren Foster and Bill Rowe. A popular vote to have more of these events.

Great jubilation in the "Richards of Rowe Street" family when Bill's charming wife Elizabeth presented him with a daughter Alexandra. Grandpa Vic, who received his Senior Membership last month, is walking on air. No doubt Alexandra will be the apple of his eye — he was always one for the ladies.

Delight to welcome Norman Craig to the ranks. Norm is a real speedster and has already made his presence felt.

Fastest winning times during the month were R. Farrell 19.0, 19.4 and 19.9, Russell Debney 19.2, Norman

Craig 20.6, Ian Ross 21.3, Bruce Cox 21.7 and John Ward 21.9

Those incurring the handicappers displeasure were D. Castle (2), J. Bradshaw (2), A. Abbott, J. Ward, N. Craig, N. McClean, S. Kay, W. Yewdall, C. Bowes, B. Cox and R. Farrell.

Sad news of the month was the passing of Sir Leslie Herron, Lieutenant-Governor of NSW and former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. He was a regular member of the Swimming Club in the 1930s.

Sir Leslie was widely known and active in sport — Rugby Union, swimming, cricket, golf and bowls, both as a participant and administrator. He was a humane and just judge, full of warm sympathy and understanding, with a keen sense of honour, a real leader amongst men.

To Lady Herron and family we extend our deepest sympathy in their sad loss.

The habitués of the Third Floor paid their respects in the usual manner.

BILLIARDS and SNOOKER

Interest in the tournaments is on the up and up. Increased numbers of entries, combined with the popularity of the Calcutta on the snooker, promises that this year may be our best ever. The handicaps met with general approval and we can expect quite a few exciting finishes.

I am sure all join with me in wishing both Jack O'Neill and Tom Powell a speedy recovery after their sojourn in hospital. The tourneys would not be quite the same without Tom sitting on the sidelines having his usual wager on each match.

It is too early to predict winners, but after a couple of heat rounds the form should make it clearer and it may then be possible to make a choice of prospective finalists.

Here is the draw for the Combined Clubs Snooker Competition for 1973.

FIRST ROUND

7th June: RACV v Sydney, Tattersall's v Sports, Schools v Imperial.

21st June: Sports v RACA, Tattersall's v Imperial, Sydney v Schools.

5th July: RACA v Imperial, Tattersall's v Schools, Sydney v Sports.

19th July: Schools v RACA, Tattersall's v Sydney, Sports v Imperial.

2nd August: RACA v Tattersall's, Imperial v Sydney, Schools v Sports.

SECOND ROUND

16th August: Sydney v RACA, Sports v Tattersall's, Imperial v Schools.

30th August: RACA v Sports, Imperial v Tattersall's, Schools v Sydney.

13th September: Imperial v RACA, Schools v Tattersall's, Sports v Sydney.

27th September: RACA v Schools, Sydney v Tattersall's, Imperial v Sports.

11th October: Tattersall's v RACA, Sydney v Imperial, Sports v Schools.

The first team is the home team. Host for 1973 is NSW Sports Club, and the honorary secretary is Mr H. Sly, telephone 25-1024.
